

Affordable Coaching Sessions

at Resonance With Nature

Let's help one another! To qualify for my national Health & Wellness coaching exam I must conduct 50 coaching sessions by August. I am currently offering a series of 10 sessions for $200. Coaching is rooted in the belief that the client is the expert in his or her own life. A coach supports her client in realizing their innate goals and strengths. It's supportive, creative, and fun.

Terms and Conditions

A free exploratory session is followed by weekly, 40 minute phone sessions. Sessions are strictly confidential. Payment of $200 is required (after the exploratory session).
